“10. As a sequel to the above discussion, we uphold the view of the learned single judge in its conclusion but substituted

the reasoning adopted by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Mohanji's case (supra) ; in other words there is no impediments for payment of compensation by the state by publishing a supplementary award in respect of the trees, super-structures and machinery, if the same has been omitted in the original award. It is further clarified that payment of compensation in respect of the super-structure, trees and machinery would not result into lapse of proceedings having gone beyond a period of two years. Therefore, the learned Single Judge has rightly directed the appellants to re-consider the matter and pay to the writ petitioner-respondents their dues even in respect of super-structures, machinery and trees."
